COUNCIL,

A PROCLAMATION.

CYRILL WICH, W. DUNCOMBE.

WHEREAS We have lately received His Majeſties Directions for Our ſpeedy Hearing and Determining the Claimes of all ſuch Perſon and Perſons who pretend to be Comprehended within the Articles of Galway and Lymerick, to the end therefore that all ſuch who Claim the benefit of the Articles ſo granted upon the Surrender of the ſaid Places may have ſufficient Notice and Opportunity to prepare themſelves and make out their ſeveral Claimes of being Comprehended within the ſaid Reſpective Articles. We do hereby Publiſh and Declare that We will on Monday the Eleventh day of June next begin on the Hearing of the Claimes of ſuch Perſons who have Entered the ſame with the Clerk of the Council, and will ſit at the Council-Chamber on every Monday, Wedneſday and Fryday, untill the ſaid Claimes are heard, unleſs Publick Notice be given to the contrary. And that all Perſons may have ſufficient Notice of the Method and Order We intend to proceed in, and may accordingly prepare themſelves; We do declare that We will proceed by the Reſpective Provinces in Order one after another, beginning with the Province of Leinſter, and with every Perſon of the ſaid Reſpective Provinces, according to their Reſidences, as ſet forth in their ſaid Claimes, at the time of Entering the ſame, and alſo as their ſaid Claimes are Entered with the Clerk of the Council. And We will Cauſe the Names of the Perſons whoſe Claimes are ſo to be heard to be publickly Affixed and Poſted up in the Council-Chamber-Hall, at leaſt Fourteen Days before the day of Hearing thereof.

And whereas ſeveral Proteſtants did Inhabit in the City of Lymerick and Town of Galway aforeſaid, during the Sieges of the ſaid Places, ſo as no Perſon who Claimes the benefit of the Articles granted upon the ſurrender of them can want the Evidence herein expected upon hearing their ſaid Claimes.

We do therefore Declare that We expect the Teſtimony of, at leaſt, three Credible Witneſſes, Viva voce, whereof one to be a Proteſtant for proof of each Perſons being Comprized within the ſaid Articles of Lymerick or Galway, as aforeſaid. Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin, the 23*d* Day of May, 1694.
